Xavier Amador, PhD and Clinical Psychologist is the author of "I'm Not Sick I Don't Need Help" and is also the founder of the LEAP Institute that provides training programs.

The LEAP (Listen-Emphasize-Agree-Partner) training teaches participants a set of evidence-based practices to strengthen mutual respect and trust with the aim of developing effective partnerships among a range of persons in a variety of settings. This training involves didactic, experiential and role-play workshops. The workshops are unique in that the same evidence-based practices are taught to:

MENTAL HEALTH PROVIDERS (psychiatrists, social workers, nurses, psychologists, case managers, crisis workers, consumer peer counselors, occupational therapists, etc.)

FAMILY CAREGIVERS AND FRIENDS (of persons with mental illness)

LAW ENFORCEMENT, CORRECTIONS, JUDGES, AND ATTORNEYS (others who regularly work with persons with serious mental illnesses).

Reservation and payment deadline is MONDAY, April 6, 2015

(Please indicate any dietary restrictions at the time of registration)

Two ways to register:

1. Send check or money order made payable to:
NAMI Metro to P.O. Box 852, Northville, MI 48167
Write "LEAP Training" in memo portion of check.

2. Register online by clicking LEAP Training Registration. Payment can be made through the registration page or by sending your check to the address above.
